Goals

1. Learn essential home cooking skills for practical, independent, and healthy living. Gain proficiency in kitchen safety, nutrition, global cuisines, and creative food presentation through structured weekly modules.
2. Starts on 26th May. 9-week course with weekly online live classes on Fridays, offline workshops on July 21–22, and weekly practical assignments and supplementary material.

Achievements

1. Successfully completed core modules including knife skills, sauces and gravies, quick breads, and one-pot meals, building strong foundational skills.
2. Consistently submitted weekly assignments with detailed documentation, photos, and videos, receiving encouraging feedback on technique and presentation.
3. Fully participated in the offline workshops, gaining hands-on experience in cooking while collaborating with peers on global cuisines.

Plan and Adherence

1. Attended all live online classes on Fridays and engaged with supplementary learning materials such as videos and articles each week.
2. Completed weekly quizzes and maintained a detailed learning log tracking time spent, key takeaways, and progress reflections.
3. Followed the course structure diligently, completing assignments and regularly practising skills through independent kitchen sessions.

Future Goals

1. Create and follow three balanced weekly meal plans incorporating nutrition, calorie control, and smart portioning strategies.
2. Expand culinary repertoire by exploring and documenting two new global recipes each week, focusing on technique and flavour combinations.
3. Develop a portfolio of five personalized signature dishes that showcase creativity, presentation skills, and overall growth throughout the course.
